Dear Mr. Doblehof,

Four years ago we met at the OCIC video fair in Holland and you sent me some TV programs on the life of saints produced by the German television (at that time I was working for CELUNI in Miami). I remembered a program on the life of Charles de Foucauld. Lately I was at the CELUNI office in Miami and I could not find it in the video library.

Could you confirm that it really had been produced? I'm collaborating on the production of a video on the community of the Little Brothers of the Gospel and it will be very helpful to use footage of that program. I will be very grateful if you could send a copy of it to:

Brother Joe Barnett

Please include the bill for copy and mail expenses.
For copy rights we would be using your services as an intermediary.

May the Lord bless you and your work,
